

Chinese Painting Materials:

Chinese Painting
Instructor: Lucy Wang
www.LucyWang.com

The best way to successfully finishing a job is to have the right tools.

Brush, Paper, Ink and Ink stone are known as the four treasures of one's study room, both for writing and painting. Since Chinese use the same tools to write calligraphy and paint paintings. A good quality of the supplies will help you to make learning more effectively.

Chinese watercolors:

Black Ink:

Ink stone & ink stick or liquid black ink

Ceramic saucers:

Six 4" diameter shallow white color ceramic saucers for mixing colors

Stamp and ink pad
Paper weights
Paper towels
White color felt( table cloth)

Brushes:

-
- #1-Detail weasel-hair brush
  - #2-Small goat-hair brush
  - #3-Small weasel-hair brush
  - #4-Large weasel-hair brush
  - #5-Large goat-hair brush

Opaque watercolors:

Absorbent rice paper:

or light weight watercolor paper

Color palette:

Water containers:

